

Alexey Lukyanuk

DOB: 12.12.1980

Sports title – International Master of Motorsport of Russia

Driver's Profile

Who is he? Fast and spectacular in equal measure, Russian Lukyanuk has forged a reputation for being unbeatable one minute, crash-happy the next. But there's much to the St Petersburg speed merchant as his dominant victories on the season-opening events in the Azores and Gran Canaria attest.

Stunning start: The Russian burst onto the ERC scene when he battled rallying legend François Delecour for a podium in Latvia in 2013 in his production-spec Mitsubishi Lancer. That earned him the Colin McRae ERC Flat Out Trophy, something he was awarded again when he was second on Rally Estonia in 2014 in the same car. He went one better in Estonia the following season – incredibly in a production-based Lancer – won again in Switzerland and started and finished 2016 with wins in Spain and Cyprus.
